

Empty N

The Revue & News | April 26, 2012

Insignia Living Announces Affiliation

Insignia Living of Georgia, LLC, operator of three Atlanta assisted living and memory care communities announced today an affiliation with Mercer University and Georgia Baptist College of Nursing. The clinical affiliation creates a framework for the interaction of professionals from both organizations and provides Mercer nursing students opportunities for education at Insignia communities.

Milton Cruz, President of Insignia and a Mercer graduate stated "the affiliation with Mercer's Georgia Baptist College of Nursing will further our commitment to ensure Georgia seniors will be well served in the future by talented and well educated healthcare providers."

Linda A. Streit, RN, DSN, Dean and Professor Georgia Baptist College of Nursing Mercer University said "we are delighted to work with the Insignia communities as a clinical education site for our undergraduate students in community health nursing, as well as our graduate students in the Family Nurse Practitioner specialty. It is vitally important for nurses to be educated in the care of our seniors."

In Alpharetta, Georgia, Insignia operates Tapestry House Assisted Living at 2725 Holcomb Bridge Road and Gardens of Roswell Assisted Living and Memory Care at 921 Nesbit Ferry Road. In Sandy Springs the company operates The Carlton Assisted Living and Memory Care at 690 Mount Vernon Highway. www.insigniaseniorliving.com

Founded in 1833, Mercer University is a dynamic and comprehensive center of undergraduate, graduate and professional education. The University enrolls more than 8,300 in 11 schools and colleges including liberal arts, law, pharmacy, medicine, business, engineering, education, theology, music, nursing and continuing and professional studies on major campuses in Macon, Atlanta and Savannah and at four regional academic centers across the state. Mercer is affiliated with four teaching hospitals; Memorial University Medical Center of Central Georgia in Macon and The Medical Center and St. Francis Hospital in Columbus and has educational partnerships with Warner Robins Air Logistics Center in Warner Robins and Piedmont Healthcare in Atlanta. The University operates an academic press and a performing arts center in Macon and an engineering research center in Warner Robins. Mercer is the only private university in Georgia to field an NCAA Division 1 athletic program. www.mercer.edu